

I would just like to comment about the possible change in FM radio. Please don't change a good thing. K-Love as well as other stations deserve to be freely heard by the general public, especially if the message is a positive one. I hope the simple opinions of a regular American citizen still matter.